

Nominate Someone for the CMC Emerging Co-operator Award!

The Co-operative and Mutuals Canada Emerging Co-operator Award honours men and women 35 years of age or less who have contributed outstanding efforts to the cause and the development of co-operative and/or mutual enterprises. This award provides recognition to an individual who has contributed in significant ways to promoting, developing or uniting co-operatives and/or mutual in Canada and/or internationally.

The following criteria will be considered when reviewing the nomination:

1. Leadership: The personal commitment and vision to the Canadian co-operative and mutual sector. How the nominee inspired and persuaded others to act to advance the co-operative and/or mutual movement. If the nominee did not hold a position or office in the co-operative and/or mutual movement, how the nominee demonstrated these same qualities to advance the co-operative and mutual form of enterprise, for example through a volunteer or committee member role.
2. Achievement: The method by which the nominee achieved significant changes in promoting, developing and uniting co-operatives and/or mutuals.
3. Recognition: The national and/or international recognition that the nominee received for his/her work relating to co-operatives and/or mutuals.

The nomination must be submitted by a member of Co-operative and Mutuals Canada by February 22, 2018. The application form can be found at the here. The award ceremony will take place during the 5th Congress and Annual General Meeting of CMC from June 19 – 21, 2018 at the Delta Hotel in Victoria, BC.

As a committee, we want to see more nominations submitted this year.

With the successful campaign of Coops150 Stories, we truly believe that there are some outstanding leaders that should be nominated for this award.
